

Aims & Objectives

In order to promote research and development activities, St. Johns College of Engineering and technology, yemmiganur extends its full support to students, faculty and staff. Full/Partial financial support is given to all innovative research & development works taken up by the students, faculty and staff members. The detailed objectives are given below.

- i. To motivate the faculty members for improving their knowledge, skills and qualifications by registering in doctoral and post-doctoral research studies.
- ii. To encourage the students and faculty members to publish technical papers in national and international reputed journals, preferably in UGC/ Scopus / WoS / SCI /ESCI/ IEEE /ASME/ ASCE/ ACM etc. journals.
- iii. To encourage the students and faculty members to present their papers in national and international conferences, Training programs, and Tech-Festivals organized by reputed Universities and Institutions by providing the financial assistance.
- iv. To create interest and competitive atmosphere among the staff members to take up Research projects.
- v. To undertake research activities and development projects offered by various funding agencies.
- vi. To maintain and disseminate current information about relevant research policy areas and initiatives in government, in the professions and in relevant industries, including external funding opportunities.
- vii. To assist for applying and getting funds for conducting Seminar/Workshop/FDP from various available funding agencies.
- viii. To motivate the students towards innovative projects by assisting financially through internal funding.
- ix. To interact with industry, government, professions and the wider community on all research matters promote faculty research activities to external stakeholders.
- x. To coordinate faculty level workshops and staff development activities on research-related issues.